Commercial Booths

Mailing Address:

YVFR, Attn: Vendor

P.O. Box 27, Grandview, WA 98930

For more information or to obtain application packet, please visit our website at www.yvfair-rodeo.org, or send an e-mail to yakimavalleyfair.rodeo@gmail.com or call 882-1197.

General Rules for Commercial Booths and Food Booths

1. All applications are subject to the approval of the Yakima Valley Fair & Rodeo (YVFR) and are considered on a first-come, first-served basis, and should be submitted as soon as possible due to limited commercial booth space. For food booths, admittance will also be considered based on type of food the vendor is providing, and if another vendor is already providing that same food.
2. In order to be considered for acceptance, all applications must be received by the YVFR by 5 p.m. on Friday, July 21, 2017.
3. Set up time begins on Monday at 5 p.m. and continues at 8 a.m. on Tuesday of Fair week. Booths must be completed by Tuesday evening.
4. All booths need to be in order, manned and all vehicles must be off the grounds by 8:00 a.m. on Wednesday.
5. Booths may be stocked before 8 a.m. and after closing time on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday during the fair.
6. Your activities are limited to your assigned booth space area ONLY.

How to Enter in the Open Class Departments

Open class departments are open to anyone (all ages)!*

For 4-H and FFA exhibit rules and registration information, see the 4-H/FFA Section.*

You have two options:

Pre-Registration:

1. Pre-registration is encouraged in open class departments - Home Economics, Fine Art, Photography, Horticulture and Floriculture, but not required. Registration is done online at www.yvfair-rodeo.org After you have pre-registered, you can still add or delete items when you arrive at the fair on entry day.
2. When you arrive with your exhibits on your department's entry day, go directly to the Open Class Beavon barn and your entry tags will be waiting for you.
3. Along with your item(s), please bring a self-addressed, stamped envelope with you if you would like to have your Premium check mailed to you. If you do not bring an envelope, premium monies will be considered a donation to the fair. Check the individual department sections for the date and times of entry for your particular category.

Day of Entry Registration:

1. Check the individual department sections for the date and times of entry for your particular category.
2. Be sure to check with each individual department for dates and rules pertaining specifically to that area of entry.
3. Come to the Open Class Beavon building on the day of entry and you will find entry information and receive your exhibitor tags (there is no entry fee). You will be given specific instructions then. Please bring address labels to speed up completion of 3-part entry tags.
4. All exhibits must remain at the fairgrounds until Sunday morning. Pick up time is 8 am-10 am, and your entry stub will be required for pick up. If not picked up on Sunday, item(s) will be forfeited.
5. Along with your item(s), please bring a self-addressed, stamped envelope if you would like to have your Premium check mailed to you. If you do not bring an envelope, premium monies will be considered a donation to the fair.

General Rules

Superintendent: Yvonne Graham - 509.305.1871

For Open Class Schedule- refer to event schedule at beginning of premium book

1. All work shall be the work of the exhibitors.
2. All exhibitors must have entries in place between 12 noon and 9:00 p.m. on Monday of fair week. All articles must be claimed using the exhibitor's tag number, between 8 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. on Sunday when the fair is over.
3. All exhibitors shall be limited to one entry in each lot - unless otherwise stated.
4. No exhibitor may compete for premiums after one year's exhibition of same article. All "Non-Market" Exhibitors must leave a self-addressed, stamped envelope to receive premium monies. If not received in the office by end of fair, premium monies will be forfeited to YVFR.
5. Entrants will be placed in one of two categories:
 - Junior - 18 years and under
 - Adult - 19+ years
6. All possible care will be taken to safeguard the entries but no responsibility will be assumed for damage or loss of the exhibit.
7. As some Divisions have more than one Best of Show Award, there will be as many Best of Show entries chosen as there are awards and the judges awarding will be final.
8. Use same name on all entry cards (no nicknames).
9. All work must be clean and free of damage.
10. Any work done by professionals will be exhibit only - NO prizes or awards will be given.
11. Do not add new class numbers when entering items or place more than 1 item per class number.

Because of the generous support of the following sponsors, we are able to provide special awards in these areas -->

Food Preservation

Rules:

1. For the safety of junior exhibitors, no entry will be accepted in canned foods from juniors under the age of 19 years. (4-H and Camp Fire members enrolled in Food Preservation projects are allowed to exhibit in the following Divisions: Canned Fruits, Canned Vegetables and Canned Meat.)
2. All entries shall be in standard canning jars.
3. Any entry may be opened for judging.
4. If 2-piece lid is used, put band back on for the protection of seal.
5. General Rules for Open Class apply to Food Preservation except, allowed to enter up to 7 entries per class in food preservation.
6. All jars must be properly labeled with processing method and time.
7. All products MUST be processed in hot water, bath or pressure canner method, and preserved in the past year.
8. Judging will be based on the processing times, methods, and headspaces from USDA Extension bulletins. Free bulletins and advice are available at the WSU Yakima County Extension Service, 2403 S 18th St, Suite 100, Union Gap, WA 98903, 509.574.1601
9. Meat, fish, poultry and vegetables must be pressure canned.
10. Dried foods should be in clear glass jars for exhibition with a label indicating product name, pretreatment (if none use, write "No pretreatment"), drying method used (sun, dehydrator, oven) and date preserved.
11. Products without a label, incorrect methods or incorrect jars will be disqualified. Attach label to smooth side of jar. See examples of labels below. Labels do not need to be fancy.

Fruit Department

Helpful Hints & Rules:

1. Fruit is generally judged according to size, quality, color, uniformity and trueness to variety type.
2. Fruit will be judged according to maturity at fair time, need not be completely ripened.
3. The best size to select is not the largest nor the smallest, but one which most properly represents the variety in market demand.
4. Quality should be of the highest. Fruits should be free of any bruises, blemishes, broken skin and generally should retain their stems.
5. Color should be characteristic of the variety. It may be brightened with a soft cloth, except prunes, plums and grapes should never be polished. It is best to leave the natural bloom. No oil or wax should be used to polish fruit.

6. Size and shape should be as uniform as possible, and without any irregularities.

7. Exhibits may be entered in trays or plates, both of which will be supplied by the fair. A tray is the equivalent of one tier of fruit in a standard box of packed fruit. Plates shall hold five unless otherwise indicated.

Alfalfa Haymaster Contest

*Winner will be crowned
Yakima Valley Fair Haymaster of the Year.*

Rules:

1. Exhibitors must bring 3 bales of hay to Fairgrounds on Monday. Entries will be accepted from 7 a.m. to 12 noon that day.
2. The alfalfa must have been produced on the exhibitor's farm.
3. At time of entry, the hay will be core sampled and the sample will be sent to Agri-Check, Umatilla, OR for analysis. This will be done to determine crude protein, acid detergent fiber, ash and moisture.
4. After core test has been taken, the exhibitor can choose from his 3 bales, an 18" center section from one bale, which will be displayed and further judged visually. The remaining hay can then be taken home or can be donated to the fair. All donated hay will then be auctioned off at the 4-H and FFA livestock sale. All process will be used for youth projects on the grounds.
5. Hay may be from any cutting grown this year. Please tell which cutting at entry time.

Open Class Floriculture

Superintendent: Bob Fay - 509.830.6074

Rules:

1. Entry cards at the door. Those wishing to pre-enter may obtain cards from the Grandview Herald.
2. All entries must be placed from 5:00 to 9:00 p.m. on Tuesday of fair week. Judging begins late Tuesday evening.
3. Entries may be picked up on Sunday from 8 a.m. to 10 a.m.
4. Bottles are furnished for cut flower specimens
5. Exhibitors in Artistic Design Classes provide own containers.
6. Flowers should be hardened by putting in warm water as soon as cut. Let set several hours or overnight. Late afternoon or early morning is best time to cut. Seven-Up helps to perk flowers up.
7. Specimens must be grown by exhibitor, except dried. Exhibitors are encouraged (specimens or designs) to change their flowers to keep the show looking fresh. Any deteriorated specimens will be removed and destroyed. Deteriorated designs will be removed and held for pickup at release time.
8. No plastic, paper, or artificial plant material.
9. Accessories permitted in all designs. The fair management will not be responsible for the loss of containers or accessories.
10. Competition is open to the public, all ages.
11. If any entrant has over 15 entries, the latest they can enter is 1/2 hour before deadline.
12. FLORICULTURE IS JUDGED ON THE AMERICAN SYSTEM (which means there is only one first, second and third place winner in each class).
13. YOUTH ENTRIES WILL BE JUDGED DANISH (same scale of points but on own merit).
14. This year's theme
15. Novice Designer - won fewer than 10 blue ribbons. Judging will be Novice against Novice.
16. People's Choice Ribbons will be awarded for Advanced and Novice Design Division and Youth Designs. The winner will be determined by popular vote. Public may cast vote when the show opens until 5:00 p.m. on Friday. Ribbons will be awarded Friday evening.

DIVISION 409: Food Preservation

Open to all 4-H members enrolled or who have been enrolled in the appropriate Food Preservation Project.

Points allowed: Blue 15, Red 10, White 5

Canned Food Rules:

1. All canned products must follow procedures and processing recommendations in current Extension bulletins Canning Fruits - PNW 199; Canning Vegetables - PNW 172; Canning Tomatoes and Tomato Products - PNW 300; Canning Salsas - PNW 395; Pickling - PNW 355; Canning Meat, Poultry & Game - PNW 361; Canning Seafood - PNW 194 and Canning Smoked Fish - PNW 450. Check with Extension for other USDA approved 451 sources.
2. Exhibitors may enter as many exhibits as you wish. Each entry must be from a different recipe. State on entry form exact type of exhibit. Food must be canned during the current year.
3. Enter only researched recipes (found in the above bulletins) for all pickles, relishes and tomato-vegetable mixtures.
4. All canned tomatoes must follow current recommendations in above bulletins. State on label if raw or hot packed and if processed in a weighted gauge or dial gauge pressure canner or in a boiling-water canner.
5. You must know your altitude to determine a safe processing time or canner pressure for canning foods. (Contact Soil Conservation Service.) Put your altitude on the label!
6. Directions for canning specify a 1/4-inch headspace for jams and jellies, 1/2-inch for fruits and tomatoes processed in boiling-water canner and 1 to 1-1/4 inches for low-acid foods processed in a pressure canner.
7. Process all jams and jellies 10 minutes in a boiling-water canner (or sterilize jars and process 5 minutes).
8. Make your own label. Put as much information as possible on the label. Include product name, date of preservation, packing method (raw packed or hot packed), processing method (if boiling water canner, dial gauge pressure canner or weighted gauge pressure canner), pounds pressure used if pressure canned, processing time, and altitude).
9. Attach label to jar.
10. Products with no label, incomplete information on label, unsealed jars or unsafe processing methods or times stated on label may be disqualified.

Livestock and Poultry Rules & Regulations

Online Entry and Tagging

1. All market animals will be tagged prior to fair. Tagging days will be announced each year.
 - a. Steer tag day and weigh in will occur April 1st, 2017 from 8am-12 pm. There will not be a top weight at the April weigh in. Beef will need to weigh between 1100 lb and 1500 lbs at fairtime.
 - b. Tag day for sheep, goats, and swine is June 3rd, 2017 from 8am-12pm. Swine will need to be hauled to the fairgrounds but will remain in the trailer to avoid cross contamination. Sheep and goats will be weighed.
2. If another fair's weigh in/tag day conflicts with YVFR tag day, arrangements must be made PRIOR to the YVFR date and paperwork MUST be received within 7 days of tag day.
3. If animals lose their ear tag, superintendents must be immediately notified and retagged per the superintendent.
4. Each exhibitor will be able to tag 2 animals and one family alternate. Alternate tags will be a different color.
5. All animals must be registered online for the fair by 11:59 pm on June 1, 2017 with edits accepted until June 13, 2017.
6. Entries for Market Classes will be open to any boy or girl meeting 4-H club or FFA requirements, in good standing, having a permanent address within a Yakima County school district, those parts of Benton County including Prosser School District, Paterson School District, or Kiona Benton School District, and those parts of eastern Klickitat County including the Bickleton School District.
7. Entry fees must be paid when register, and are $12.00 per animal in Beef, Sheep, Swine, Dairy, Goats & Llamas. $5.00 for Rabbits and Poultry. Pocket Pets are $5.00 per entry. Entry forms must show whether an exhibitor is FFA or 4-H. No open class exhibitors will be permitted. No exhibitor will be allowed to enter animals of the same species in both 4-H and FFA Division.
8. 4-H Age division is based on the age of the member on October 1st of the current 4-H year, which is from October-September.
 - a. Primary/Cloverbud - Ages 5-7

- b. Junior - Ages 8-10
 - c. Intermediate - Ages 11-13
 - d. Senior - Ages 14-19
9. Due to the lack of open space there may be a limit on the number of breeding stock. Please check with Livestock Directors.
 10. Exhibitors must be performing regular care and management for the following minimal period of time:
 - a. Market Beef: 150 days
 - b. Dairy (except Dairy Heifer Replacement): 90 days
 - c. Dairy Heifer Replacement; 60 days
 - d. Goat: 60 days
 - e. Sheep and Swine (Breeding and Market): 60 days
 - f. Cavies: 45 days
 - g. Rabbits and Poultry: 45 days
 - h. Equine 90 days
 - i. Breeding stock must be owned by exhibitor or immediate family.
 11. Market stock sold at previous market stock sales will not be accepted for entry and violators of this rule will be barred from this show. Local 4-H leaders and FFA instructors may be asked to verify entries and contests will be judged separately with championships in each where designated.
 12. Each 4-H/FFA exhibitor must fit and show one representative animal of EACH species that they have entered in the fair
 13. All exhibitors must complete a Record Book for livestock and dairy projects. See Record Book section for more information.

Code of Conduct

1. By completing the online entry form, you are agreeing to the following code of conduct:
 - a. I believe that my participation in the 4-H and FFA Program should demonstrate my own ability, knowledge, and skill in feeding and preparing my livestock project for show. I will do my own work and accept only advice and support from others. I understand that I may be expelled from the show if a leader or parent fits or shows my animal.
 - b. I will not use abusive or questionable techniques in the feeding, fitting and showing of my animals. I will not use fraudulent, illegal or deceptive practices when fitting them for show. I also will not allow my parent, my supervisor, or any other person to employ such practice to my animal.
 - c. I will read and understand the rules of the Yakima Valley Fair & Rodeo in which I am a participant. I will not allow my parents and the supervisor of my project animal to break the rules or make exception on my behalf. I wish to be an example of how to accept what life has to offer – good and bad – and how to live with the outcome of exhibiting my livestock project.
 - d. I accept responsibility for:
 - The proper care and treatment of my animals.
 - The production of wholesome food.
 - The development of sound ethical behavior in myself and others.
 - e. I will not use profanity in the livestock area.
2. Failure of an exhibitor to comply with the rules of conduct shall result in forfeit of all premium money and/or removal of exhibitor and their stock from the show grounds.

Work Nights & Fair Display set up

1. There will be several work nights leading up to the fair - July 24th, 26th and 31st. Specific projects/tasks will be listed online on the website www.yvfair-rodeofr.org and the Yakima Valley Fair and Rodeo facebook page as it gets closer. These are optional...All help is greatly appreciated!
2. A mandatory work night will be Wednesday of the week before the Fair - August 2, 2017. At that work night, each club/chapter needs to be represented and a list of jobs will be posted in each barn at the fairgrounds. If the optional work nights are well attended, and the necessary tasks are completed at mandatory work night, the clubs/chapters will be allowed to set up their displays that night as well. This is dependent on how the work nights go - this will be announced prior to the mandatory work night on the facebook page and website www.yvfair-rodeo.org.

3. If general fair work is not completed on the mandatory work night, clubs will be able to set up displays at 8 am on Saturday morning, Monday and/or Tuesday and must be completed by 8 a.m. Wednesday morning when the fair opens.
4. Club displays must include the club name, fair theme, educational information about the species being shown, exhibitors stall cards and cost sheets. Displays should be easy to read.
5. The cost sheet (mentioned above) is posted on the website www.yvfair-rodeo.org. A limited number of paper copies will be available at the livestock office on Monday and Tuesday, but exhibitors should plan to print it and fill it out at home before the fair opens. They need to be filled out and displayed when the fair opens Wednesday morning at 8 a.m.

Arriving at Fair

1. All steer, dairy, sheep and goat entries must be on the grounds by 9 a.m. Tuesday, no exception. Sheep, Goats, Swine, and Dairy can enter grounds Monday evening, but steers need to be hauled in on Tuesday morning. NO LATE ANIMALS WILL BE ACCEPTED
2. All livestock will be weighed on the same scale. The weight is final and animals will not be re-weighed.
 - a. Swine will be weighed from 5:30- 9:00 p.m. on Monday evening.
 - b. Other livestock will be weighed Tuesday starting at 9:00 a.m. Steers first, immediately followed by sheep, who will be immediately followed by goats. Sheep are to wait until all the steers are weighed and have left the scale area before they approach the scale area.
3. All steers, lambs, swine and goats will be weighed on one scale. Check-in weight is final. Animals will not be permitted to re-weigh. Scale is digital and certified by WSDA. All animals below or above weight must leave the fairgrounds (see species specific rules about entering as breeding stock). All weights on the scale are final and subject to pencil shrink of the three percent on beef and lambs. THE SCALE WEIGHT IS FINAL. NO Reweighing.
4. For weight requirements, see specific Division.
5. All market species will need to turn in a market health record form at weigh-in. The market health record is a WSU extension form found online on the extension website or the fair website. Contact superintendent with any questions.
6. In addition to the market health record, steer projects will not be allowed to unload on the grounds until state brand slips (one set for each animal) are turned over to beef superintendent which includes Bill of Sale from previous owner to exhibitor and brand slip from exhibitor to Yakima Valley Fair & Rodeo.
7. Washington livestock requires no vaccination or test for entry. Dairy and beef heifers must have bangs vaccination to be entered.
8. Fair Veterinarians and Superintendents will inspect all classes of livestock and poultry (including pet animals, fur bearing animals, pigeons, ducks, geese and turkeys) before they are exhibited, to determine that the livestock and poultry are free from infectious or contagious disease and ectoparasites, and that animals are healthy and appropriate for fair exhibit.
9. Fair Veterinarians and Superintendents must reject an animal with infectious or contagious disease or ectoparasites. (Exhibitors shall be aware that ringworm, warts, pinkeye, strangles, contagious thyma, scabies, lice, mites, ticks and fleas fall into these categories).
10. No animal from any quarantined premise will be permitted to enter fair.
11. A sitting committee will be present on the grounds to screen desirable exhibits. In case of question of ownership, this committee will have the right to demand satisfactory evidence of ownership. An owner of a rejected exhibit must remove said exhibit from the grounds within a reasonable time set by the sitting committee.
12. Any exhibitor or parent administering any drugs and/or medications to any livestock entry, without direct permission of division superintendents, will result in immediate expulsion and cancellation of any earned awards and/or premium monies. NO EXCEPTIONS
13. All livestock and dairy exhibitors must complete a Record Book and submit a 4x6 picture of themselves with each animal and turn it in to the livestock office by 12 noon on Tuesday. See Record Book section for more information.

General Livestock Guidelines

1. There will be a mandatory exhibitor and parent meeting on Tuesday evening at the sale arena.
2. Straw or sawdust bedding will be furnished.
3. The Herdsmanship Judge will judge for Herdsmanship at random (see herdsmanship section for more information).
4. Each exhibitor must furnish the necessary feed and water buckets for his/her animals and shall be responsible for their care. *Grandview city water has a taste that some animals do not like, so exhibitors may want to bring water from home to ensure your animal will continue drinking at the fair.
5. Owners of any animals not properly cared for will be assessed a "Yardage fee" of $100.

6. Animals not properly fitted and trained for showing will be rejected at the discretion of show officials. Animals that cannot be controlled and shown without the use of tranquilizers or excessive force shall not be allowed on the grounds or may be removed.
7. Each 4-H/FFA exhibitor must fit and show one representative animal of EACH species that they have entered in the fair
8. The YVFR shall have officers on the grounds and will use every reasonable precaution in its power for the preservation and protection of persons, articles on exhibition, livestock and property but will not be responsible for loss or damage by theft, fire or otherwise. The YVFR shall have an officer on the grounds each night. Exhibitors release the Yakima Valley Fair & Rodeo from any liability from loss, damage or injury of themselves, livestock or other property while such exhibit is on the grounds of the Yakima Valley Fair and Rodeo. When you complete your entry cards you are making this pledge.
9. Refer to Division of your animal for addition information and regulations.
10. The Danish system of judging or group method of awards will be used throughout all Divisions. All judges will be contracted for a maximum of 2 years and cannot be related or personally connected to a 4-H group or superintendent of the barn they are judging in.
11. FFA exhibitors to show before 4-H in odd years, and 4-H to show first in even years. This rule applicable in all divisions.
12. Any animals on the fairgrounds may be used in 4-H and FFA judging contest.
13. Animals must meet breed standards to be considered for a class. Exhibitor must show proof of bloodline upon request.
14. Yakima Valley Fair & Rodeo Board reserves the right to review any, and all unforeseen disputes not covered by these rules and regulations. Their decision shall be final and upheld.

Livestock Exhibitor Lodging & Parking

1. Livestock exhibitors will be responsible for their own lodging.
2. Cars, trucks and bicycles are not allowed on grounds except designated parking areas after Wednesday at 8 a.m. with the exception of loading and unloading Thursday through Saturday 6:00 a.m. to 7:00 a.m.
3. Exhibitors parking passes are for South gate only. North gate may only be used for unloading animals.
4. Parking pass must be in vehicle's window at all times. Parking pass is NOT fair admission. All vehicle occupants must have a season pass, exhibitor wristband, pass etc. Vehicles subject to towing at owners' expense if parked in an area other than designated parking for that pass.

Removal and Clean Up

1. Once an animal has been sold and turned, the animal cannot be bought out of turn pens.
2. Breeding stock may not be removed until market stock have been removed. This also includes take home animals. Breaking this regulation may result in forfeiture of premium money. Buyer may remove market animals after 8 a.m. Breeding stock and take home market animals may not leave until 9 a.m. Sunday and must be gone by 10 a.m. Sunday unless prior arrangements are made with a Livestock Director. Tear downs for individual barns will be determined by Livestock Superintendents and Directors but may not be done until all turn buyer animals have left the building Sunday morning.
3. Representatives from every club or chapter must be present for cleanup of pens on Sunday at 8:00 a.m. (or after turned animals are removed). Pens must be cleaned or all premium money will be withheld. Barn superintendents will check clubs out when their area is cleaned. Clubs, Chapters, or Individuals that do not properly teardown their stalls/pens after the fair will be assessed a "Yardage Fee" of $100.

Items you will need or should have on hand: brooms, dustpan, small scoop shovel, a pair of wire pliers, wheel barrow and anything that will help to clean pen or pens of animals that are being shown. Superintendents are not responsible for furnishing these items!!
- 6. Club and Chapter leaders must verify the clubs and/or chapter information in the Livestock Office for premiums to be paid. Premium checks will be mailed to those meeting herdsman'ship requirements. All checks issued against the Yakima Valley Fair & Rodeo must be cashed in 90 days or they will be considered a donation to the Yakima Valley Fair and Rodeo.
- 7. Scoring guidelines will be posted outside of livestock office and on the website prior to fair. Leaders and advisors may look at score sheet in Livestock Office daily.

8. Club displays must include the club name, fair theme, educational information about the species being shown, exhibitors stall cards and cost sheets. Displays should be easy to read. Decorations may be used at each club's discretion, but in no way should they create a fire hazard or block view of animals.
9. Parents' and leaders' help will be permitted until Tuesday at 8:00am. From then on, members are to do the work. Points will be deducted from each inspection if parents are helping. Older members are encouraged to assist younger members.
10. Feed buckets are to be removed when animals are not being fed. Superintendent has discretion to have feed buckets removed if considered a mess. Water is to be available to animals at all time.
11. Exhibitors shall not block spectator's view of the exhibit.
12. Stalls must show steady attention.
13. All stall cards and club banners, etc. must be in evidence at all times and displayed in a proper manner.
14. All tack boxes must be closed except when owners are getting supplies out of them or putting things away (exceptions to be made during exhibitors show time.) Equipment must be stored neatly. Equipment such as sheep blocking stands must be stored inconspicuously when not in use. All evidence of grooming, such as wool-clippings must be removed.
15. All manure must be removed at all times. A covered manure pit or spreader will be designated.
16. The Herdsmanship Superintendent shall review the livestock and poultry area from time to time during the Fair and shall be empowered to point out to the exhibitors any violations of the Herdsmanship Contest. If such conditions are not corrected, the offending member of such 4-H club or FFA chapter will be determined by the Herdsmanship Superintendent and the Club and/or Chapter leaders and the Fair Directors will be empowered to withhold premium monies from that exhibitor. If violations continue during the span of the fair the member and/or student may not exhibit the following year.
